Talking with a representative of The Daily Press, Mr. Jones expressed the opinion that the chances for a national Democratic victory this fall ty is united now as it has not be since the split in 1896, and that Bryan is gaining strength steadily.

Discussing the First District, Mr.

Jones said that the party is united throughout the counties, and that a mber of lawyers and other promi-ent men who have never before voted for Mr. Bryan are giving their support to the ticket this year.

In regard to his own campaign, Mr. majority in Newport sews.
